This publication provides general guidance about the mission of the 11th Wing, communicates responsibilities of the Wing to subordinate commanders and assigned personnel, and explains the organizational relationship between the Wing and HQ USAF.

1. Mission . The 11th Wing provides base operating and logistical support; ceremonial, musical, protocol and funeral support; primary care and travel medical services and selected administrative major command (MAJCOM) support for HQ USAF and Air Force Element activities.

2. Command . The 11th Wing Commander will:

- 2.1. Respond to the Vice Chief of Staff of the United States Air Force for Pentagon and Bolling AFB administrative and support functions.
- 2.2. Command the forces of the 11th Wing.
- 2.3. Serve as the Air Force representative for matters concerning the National Capital Region (NCR).
- 2.4. Exercise jurisdiction over Air Force activities located within the NCR and Air Force personnel performing duty with non-Air Force activities worldwide.

3. Responsibilities . The 11th Wing will:

- 3.1. Provide base operating and logistical support to Air Force personnel and activities in the Pentagon and at Bolling AFB.
- 3.2. Administer MAJCOM and base-level support, e.g., Financial Management and Comptroller, Personnel, Judge Advocate, and Plans and Programs, to HQ USAF and selected field operating agencies (FOAs), DoD, selected agencies, US Federal Executive Departments, and to Air Force personnel assigned to non-Air Force activities worldwide.
- 3.3. Organize, train and maintain operational control of the USAF Band, the USAF Honor Guard, and the USAF Chaplaincy at Arlington National Cemetery.

- 3.4. Furnish ceremonial, musical, protocol and funeral support for White House, Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD), Joint Chiefs of Staff (JCS) and Air Force requirements.
- 3.5. Provide primary health care for Bolling AFB and travel medical support to designated government executives.
- 3.6. Train mission-ready general dentists for the Military Health System.
- 3.7. When directed by JCS, provide combat-ready forces, support and equipment to unified commands.

RALPH E. EBERHART, General, USAF
Vice Chief of Staff
